The Nidaros Cathedral and the Archbishop's Palace
Bus stop 3

In the heart of Trondheim is Nidaros Cathedral – an ornate Gothic masterpiece. Norway's national shrine and northern Europe's most important pilgrimage site.
The cathedral is built over the tomb of Olav the Holy, the Viking king who christianized Norway and became the entire country's eternal king. Nidaros Cathedral and the Archbishop's Palace offer many great experiences.

Kristiansten Fortress
Bus stop 2

Kristiansten Fortress is one of Trondheim's main landmarks and most popular attractions. The fortress is a National Fortifications Heritage site and the dungeon and museum are the main attractions inside.
The fort was built after the great city fire in 1681 and now stands guard over the city. It saved the city from conquest by Sweden in 1718. The fortress was decommissioned in 1816 by king Charles XIV John.
The fort offers a spectacular view over Trondheim and its surroundings, the fjord and the mountains.

The Old Town Bridge
Bus stop 3

Gamle Bybro – The Old Town Bridge is also known as the 'Portal of Happiness' after the lyrics of the popular romantic waltz 'Nidelven stille og vakker du er', written by Oskar Hoddø. Both the song and the characteristic appearance of the portals have probably contributed to the bridge witnessing many a marriage proposal over the years.
Today, Gamle Bybro is one of Trondheim's most recognisable landmarks and is one of the most photographed motifs in Trondheim.

Bryggerekka – Historic Wharves
Bus stop 3

Wharves, warehouses and boathouses have stood at the mouth of the Nidelva river since the early days in Trondheim. The locals traded goods here from near and far. In King Sverre's day, the wharves were also used as defences.
The old wharf buildings that have been preserved, line both sides of the Nidelva – and the oldest of these date from the 18th century. This is truly the most photogenic area in Trondheim.

Stiftsgården – Trondheims royal residence
Bus stop 4

Stiftsgården is Trondheim's official royal residence, built in the period 1774-1778 for the enterprising businesswoman Cecilie Christine Schøller.
Every summer, the palace's grand halls and rooms open to visitors from home and abroad. Together with a skilled guide you can become more familiar with a major work in Norwegian architectural history and the Norwegian monarchy.

Rockheim – Norwegian Museum of Rock Music
Bus stop 1

Visit Rockheim and explore recent Norwegian music – and cultural history, make electronic music in a sound lab, visit temporary exhibits and enjoy food and drink in restaurant Rockheim Panorama.
The museum shop at Rockheim offers everything from books, exhibition catalogues, records and Rockheim effects, to music-related gift items such as jewellery, bags, mugs, toys, instruments and toys!
